RANDOLPH JOSLYN SILVER, M.A. Ed.

2215 First Avenue North, Seattle WA 98109-2316

(206) 427-3536 Randolphsilver@gmail.com www.madpotter.com

EDU	CATI	ON	SLIV	IMA	RY
エレし	CIIII	$\mathcal{O}_{\mathbf{I}}\mathbf{N}$	out	TIVI	11/1

2003	Togenomori: Shigaraki Ceramic Cultural Park, Shigaraki, Japan. Artist in Residence.
98-2000	Seattle University, Seattle, WA. Masters of Arts in Education, Curriculum and Instruction
	Program: creativity and ceramics. 3.97 GPA
	Awarded 2000 Spirit of the School Award, Seattle University Graduate School of Education
2000	University of Oregon, Eugene, OR. Studied Ceramics and firing Japanese Anagama wood kilns
91 -92	Houston Museum of Fine Arts, Glassell Art Institute. Houston, TX. Studied metal sculpture and ceramic arts.
87-91	Pepperdine University, Malibu, CA. Cum Laude Graduate. B.A. in Economics. Emphasis
	Art/ceramics. GPA 3.65
1990	Arizona State University, Tempe, AZ. Deans List. Emphasis in Art. GPA 3.83

WORK EXPERIENCE

classes. Currently developing and providing original curriculum design and assessment with focus on environmental education, multiculturalism and cultural competency.  Commercial Ceramic Sculptor and Potter. Professional artist featured in numerous shows, stores and galleries selling work through commissions, auctions, consignment and wholesale.  Stocker Farms/ Haunted Corn Maze: Lead designer and senior actor for local corn maze.  Seattle Center Academy. Art/sculpture instructor for middle school aged children and designed, monitored and assessed curriculum for existing and new courses.  Seattle Center. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for adult students.  Seward Park Art Studio. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for teen classes.  Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.  Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.	2009-Current	Northwest School. Full time Ceramics/Pottery instructor teaching four middle and upper school
2001-Current  2001-Current  Commercial Ceramic Sculptor and Potter. Professional artist featured in numerous shows, stores and galleries selling work through commissions, auctions, consignment and wholesale.  2006-Current  2000-2009  Scattle Center Academy. Art/sculpture instructor for middle school aged children and designed, monitored and assessed curriculum for existing and new courses.  Kirkland Arts Center. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for adult students.  2006  Seward Park Art Studio. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for teen classes.  Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for horthwest summer program.  Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  2003-2009  Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  2003-2006  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	2007-Current <ul> <li>Commercial Ceramic Sculptor and Potter. Professional artist featured in numerous shows, stores and galleries selling work through commissions, auctions, consignment and wholesale.</li> <li>Stocker Farms/ Haunted Corn Maze: Lead designer and senior actor for local corn maze.</li> <li>Seattle Center Academy. Art/sculpture instructor for middle school aged children and designed, monitored and assessed curriculum for existing and new courses.</li> <li>Kirkland Arts Center. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for adult students.</li> <li>Seward Park Art Studio. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for teen classes.</li> <li>Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.</li> <li>Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.</li> <li>Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.</li> <li>Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.</li> <li>Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.</li> <li>Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counsclor, art instructor.</li> </ul> stores and galleries selling work through commissions, auctions, consignment and wholesale.  Stocker Farms/ Haunted Corn Maze: Lead designer and senior actor for local corn maze.  Seattle Center Academy. Art/sculpture instructor for middle school aged children and designed, monitored and assessed curriculum for existing and new courses.  Kirkland Arts Center. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for adult students.  Seward Park Art Studio. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for teen classes.  Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.  Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	2001 Current Seattle Center Academy. Art/sculpture instructor for middle school aged children and designed, monitored and assessed curriculum for existing and new courses.  Kirkland Arts Center. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for adult students.  Seward Park Art Studio. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for teen classes.  Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.  Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	2001-Current monitored and assessed curriculum for existing and new courses.  Kirkland Arts Center. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for adult students.  Seward Park Art Studio. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for teen classes.  Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.  Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	2006-Current	Stocker Farms/ Haunted Corn Maze: Lead designer and senior actor for local corn maze.
Kirkland Arts Center. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for adult students.  Seward Park Art Studio. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for teen classes.  Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.  Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	2000-2009 for adult students.  Seward Park Art Studio. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided instruction for teen classes.  Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.  Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	2006	e instruction for teen classes.  Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.  Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.		• .
instruction for teen classes.  Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.  Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	2006	Seward Park Art Studio. Designed and implemented ceramic curriculum and provided year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.  Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.		instruction for teen classes.
1994-2009 Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  2003-2009 Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  2003-2006 Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	2004-2009	Northwest School. Ceramics co-instructor for advanced students (for 4/5 of the quints each
Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  2003-2009 Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  2003-2006 Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.		year); curriculum consultant and substitute instructor; Raku-firing fieldtrip leader for all high school
Montlake Community Center. Ceramics instructor in year round bi-weekly classes for beginning and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  2003-2009 Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  2003-2006 Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.		students; and ceramics instructor for the Northwest summer program.
and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.  2003-2009 Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  2003-2006 Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	1994-2009
<ul> <li>Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.</li> <li>Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.</li> <li>Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.</li> <li>Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.</li> <li>Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.</li> </ul>		and advanced adult students; instructor for many teen and children's classes; and occasional teacher
<ul> <li>Giant Magnet/Seattle International Children's Festival. Developer of curriculum for weeklong "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.</li> <li>Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.</li> <li>Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.</li> <li>Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.</li> <li>Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.</li> </ul>		for youth summer Clay Camps. Designed and implemented all curriculum.
long "Claystation III" ceramic activity involving use and recycling of over a ton of clay; and ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  2003-2006 Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  2001-2003 Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  1998-2001 Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  1997-2000 Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	2003-2009 ceramics instructor for thousands of children each year.  Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.
<ul> <li>Center School. (Seattle Public High School). Designer, provider of monitoring and assessment curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.</li> <li>Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.</li> <li>Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.</li> <li>Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.</li> </ul> curriculum for high school students. Ceramics instructor and program founder.  Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	2003-2006	•
2001-2003 Pottery Northwest. Adult and youth ceramics instructor and curriculum developer, teaching numerous classes and workshops.  1998-2001 Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  1997-2000 Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.
numerous classes and workshops.  1998-2001	2001-2003
1998-2001 Open Studio, Inc. executive director/founder of non-profit that brought ceramics programs to Seattle's underserved youth.  1997-2000 Hidden Valley Camp. Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.		,
Seattle's underserved youth.  1997-2000 Hidden Valley Camp . Assistant Director, child and teen counselor, art instructor.	1998-2001	*
	1997-2000	·
	1992-1997	Platypus Productions, Inc Better Business Bureau Video Series. President and Co-founder.

VOLUNTEER WORK EXPERIENCE

2005-2009	Children's Hospital. Performing Magician and child-life volunteer for 3 hours each week.
2006	George Ohr Museum in Biloxi, MS. Post hurricane Katrina provider of relief by creating a mobile teaching/education/demonstration ceramics arts program teaching over 700 children and raising funds for the devastated museum and community.
94-2009	Seattle Public Schools. Guest ceramic artist and visiting pottery demonstrator.

95-2002 KUBE/KISS 106.1 FM Haunted Houses. (fundraising for Fred Hutch Research Center/Children's Hospital): Set design, make-up artist, actor.

2000-Current Pratt Fine Arts, Puget Sound Blood Center, Jefferson County Land Trust, American Civil Liberties Union, Prison Pet Partnership Program and Seattle Youth Garden Works: annual artwork donations to assist with fundraising auctions (artwork selling for as much as $6000 per piece).

RECENT AWARDS

2009	Best of American Ceramics Exhibition: Beijing, China.
2009	Juror's Third Place: Collective Vision Gallery Annual Art Competition: Bremerton, WA
2008	Juror's Second Prize: Washington Clay Arts Association at Art Stop Gallery, Tacoma, WA
2007	Art Nouveau First Place, Juror's Choice: Northwest Craft Center.
2007	Art Education Grant Recipient: Allied Arts Foundation.
2007	Best in Show: Art Stop auction, Tacoma, WA.
2006	Best in Show/ Member's Choice National Council on Education for the Ceramic Arts/WPA at
	Northwest Craft Center
2006	Best in Show/ Juror's Choice / People's Choice: Art Port Townsend. 750 Competing artists.
2006	Best in Show/ Juror's Choice NCECA/WPA at Art Stop, Tacoma, WA

AFFILIATIONS

NCECA (National Council of Educators of Ceramic Art). WCAA (Washington Clay Arts Association).

PUBLICATIONS

Artwork published in: ACLU Intranet (artwork images then used in thousands of nation-wide ACLU fliers, posters, annual statements, brochures, etc.), Ceramics Monthly, Seattle Times, Seattle Weekly, Pottery Making Illustrated.

TRAVEL AND LEISURE EXPERIENCES

Cultural Travel: Austria, Canada, China, Costa Rica, Croatia, Denmark, Ecuador/Galapagos, England, France, Greece, Guatemala, Honduras, Hungary, Indonesia, Italy, Japan, Macau, Malaysia, Mexico, Netherlands, Philippines, Singapore, Slovenia, South Korea, Spain, Switzerland, Thailand.

SCUBA: Puerto Rico, Cayman Islands, Florida keys, Honduras, USVI, Philippines, Croatia, Santa

Catalina Island, Santa Barbara, Thailand, Mexico, Belize and Puget sound.

Current activities: Avid soccer player, snowboarder, back-country skier, hiker and camper, Advanced SCUBA certified diver, squash player, sport climber and bike commuter. Completed the Seattle to Portland 206 mile bike ride (2004, 2007), the Seafair Triathlon (2005), the Los Angeles Marathon (1990) and climbed Mt. Rainier (2008).

GALLERIES AND EXHIBITIONS

2001 - 2006	Pottery Northwest Gallery, Seattle, WA
2001 - Current	Frank and Dunya Gallery, Seattle, WA
2003 - 2006	City Peoples Garden Store, Seattle, WA
2003 - Current	Shigaraki Ceramic Cultural Park, Shigaraki, Japan
2003 - Current	Kobo Gallery, Seattle, WA
2003	PSMS Show (Puget Sound Mycological Society) Art Exhibition, Seattle, WA
2004	Federal Building Promenade, Seattle, WA
2004	Crespinel Gallery, Seattle, WA
2004	Alwan Gallery, New York, NY
2005 - 2006	Kindred Circle Gallery, Edmonds, WA

2005 - 2007	Phoenix Rising Gallery, Seattle, WA
2005 - Current	White Bird Gallery, Cannon Beach, OR
2005 - 2008	Made in Washington Stores, Seattle WA
2006 - 2009	Julia's Gift Gallery, Seattle, WA
2006 - Current	Art Stop Gallery, Tacoma, WA
2006 - 2007	Snohomish Arts Council, Everett, WA
2006 - Current	Gunnar Nordstrom Fine Art Gallery, Kirkland, WA
2006	Northwind Arts Center, Port Townsend, WA
2007 - Current	Exclusively Washington, Seattle, WA
2007	Anacortes Arts Festival Fine Arts Exhibition, Anacortes WA
2008	American Museum of Ceramic Art in Pomona, CA
2009	Collective Vision Gallery, CVG show, Bremerton, WA
2009	Whitebird Gallery, Featured Artist in Spring Unveiling, Cannon Beach, OR
2009	Kirkland Arts Center, Kirkland, WA
2009	Kirkland City Hall, Kirkland, WA
2009	Best of American Ceramics Exhibition, Beijing CHINA.
2009	Best of American Ceramics Exhibition, San Jose, CA.
2001- Current	Ongoing commission work done for national private collectors
2010	WCAA Juried Exhibition, Tacoma, WA
2010	Northwest Craft Center, Natural Progressions Exhibition, Seattle, WA